There's a reason CNN hails Japan as one of the "Top 10 Places to Travel in 2014," and we will see more of this fascinating island nation with Princess Cruise Line – the No. 1 North American cruise line in Japan.

We'll enjoy unique Japanese experiences onboard from local cuisine and cultural events to Japanese-infused entertainment. Porthole Magazine named Princess Cruise the "Best Asia Itineraries" and its enriching cruises to Japan more than live up to the billing.

Pre – Cruise Tour

Day 1 Apr 17

Honolulu – Tokyo ➔

We start our adventure by boarding an international flight to Tokyo, the capital city of Japan, and one of the most populous metropolitan areas in the world. Meals and snacks will be served on the plane.

Day 2 Apr 18

Tokyo

Upon arrival at Narita or Haneda International Airport, an Air & Sea Travel representative will greet us and escort us to our hotel.

Day 3 Apr 19

Tokyo – Yokohama – Diamond Princess Cruise

(B)

This morning, we will transfer to Osanbashi Passenger Terminal to embark on the newly renovated Diamond Princess Cruise Ship. The ship boasts 700 balconies, perfect for capturing incredible landscapes and intriguing city skylines across the globe. As one of only two Princess Cruise ships built in Japan, it's not surprising this unique vessel can often be found sailing to the most intriguing vacation destinations abroad.

Post – Cruise Tour

Day 11 Apr 27

Yokohama – Tokyo

Arrive at Osanbashi Passenger Terminal. After disembarking, we will transfer to Yokohama, the second largest populated city in Japan after Tokyo. On the way, we will visit Minato Mirai 21 is a seaside urban area in central Yokohama whose name means "harbor of the future". It is blessed with a great location along the water and has a wealth of attractions. You can enjoy some free time here by doing some shopping or visiting Yokohama Red Brick Warehouse on your own. Our next stop is Japan's largest Chinatown, Yokohama Chinatown. A large number of Chinese stores and restaurants can be found in its narrow and colorful streets. The main attraction is the cuisine offered at its many restaurants and food stands. Popular favorites include steamed buns (manju), ramen noodles and a wide array of other Chinese dishes, many of which have been Japanized to a certain degree. We can enjoy our own lunch in here. Then, we can explore the city or enjoy free time after checking into our hotel.

Day 12 Apr 28

Tokyo

Full day free at leisure. "Shop till you drop; eat till you overflow!" Enjoy the opportunity to shop around the city and eat whatever looks interesting on your own. You can visit Tokyo's most famous upscale market shopping, dining and entertainment district – The Ginza, featuring numerous department stores, boutiques, art galleries, restaurants, night clubs and cafes. Or you can enjoy a shopping day at Shinjuku, Tokyo's most vibrant commercial center, with many alleys, nooks, and crannies. Nearby, Shibuya is a center for fashion and culture, and its streets are the birthplace to many of Japan's fashion and entertainment trends.

Day 13 Apr 29

Tokyo – Honolulu ➔

After Breakfast, we will go to Senso-ji (Kinryū-zan Sensō-ji), an ancient Buddhist temple located in Asakusa, Taito, Tokyo. It is Tokyo's oldest and one of its most significant temples. The temple is dedicated to the bodhisattva Kannon (Avalokitesvara). Dominating the entrance to the temple is the Kaminarimon or "Thunder Gate". This imposing Buddhist structure features a massive paper lantern dramatically painted in vivid red-and-black tones to suggest thunderclouds and lightning. Beyond the Kaminarimon is Nakamise-dori with its shops, followed by the Hōzōmon or "Treasure House Gate" which provides the entrance to the inner complex. Within the precincts stand A Stately Five-story Pagoda and the Main Hall, devoted to Kannon Bosatsu. Catering to the visiting crowds, the surrounding area has many traditional shops and eating places that feature traditional dishes (hand-made noodles, sushi, tempura, etc.). These shops themselves are part of a living tradition of selling things to pilgrims who walked to Senso-ji. After that, we will transfer to Odaiba and visit the 19-meter tall Gundam RX 0 Statue, one of the most significant comic attractions in Japanese cartoon (manga) industry. Today Odaiba is a popular shopping and sightseeing destination for local residents and tourists alike. Enjoy our last minute shopping time here before transferring to Narita or Haneda International Airport for our return flight to Honolulu, taking with us the lasting memories of this wonderful Spring Flower Japan Cruise

We wish you a safe journey and capture many wonderful memories to share with family and friends! ☺
